Nadia Niwemugeni is an agribusiness consultant with Cupper beans ltd in Rwanda. Cupper beans is a Rwandan coffee traders company that is slowly expanding to international market. Their unique focus is on delivering highest quality coffees and ultimate coffee experiences to their consumers across the globe. They work to make their consumers enjoy the highest quality coffees at home and to recreate these perfect coffee moments wherever they may be. Their coffee is grown in one of the major coffee producing areas in Rwanda, Nyamasheke District located in the southwest of Rwanda on the shores of Lake Kivu. This region's elevation, soil, and climate makes their coffee among the leading in the region.
