

MENTEE

Bernice Dapaah

Executive Director, Ghana Bamboo Bikes Initiative

Ghana

Young Global Leader of the World Economic Forum and Alumni of the Harvard University's Executive Education Program, Bernice Dapaah is a seasoned Ghanaian with an upward climb in social entrepreneurship. She holds a Diploma in Human Resource Management and Marketing from the Institute of Commercial Management UK and bachelor's in business administration from the Christian Service University College in Kumasi Ghana. She has over a decade work experience in both the profit and non-profit industries. She was named as an Ambassador of the World Bamboo Organization having earlier on in the year been appointed as a member of the prestigious Global Teacher Prize Academy and has been honored with the World Entrepreneurship Forum's "Entrepreneur for the World Award" for her impact on society and capacity to change the world. She sits on the advisory boards of World Intellectual Property Organization-Green (WIPO Green) in Switzerland. In 2013 Bernice Dapaah was named a Vital Voices Lead Fellow having earlier on won the 2013 International Women Alliance World of Difference Award. In her capacity as the Executive Director, she ensures that project design and implementation is scientifically informed and responsible for research, monitoring and evaluation mechanisms, processes and targets related to the project and provide feedback and improvement advice to project team.

Bright Generation Community Foundation

Bright Generation Community Foundation understands that creating opportunities for people to maximize their potential and empowering them with tools and resources will eventually lead them down the path to success. We came together to establish a non-governmental organization to help fight poverty by harnessing the enormous potential, energy and creativity of the youth and women in Ghana. With unified effort and a deep sense of humanism, we are committed to crafting a thriving space for society where all have equal opportunity to develop, inspire and succeed regardless of background.

MENTOR

Mamati Tembe

Commercial Lead South Africa,
FMC